NO DECREASE IN THE NUMBER OF PLEASURE SEEKERS.

RACES AT LAKE PLACID—PAUL SMITH'S BALL—NINE-EIGHTH MUSIC AND TENNIS—NEW-YORKERS REGISTERED AT THE DIFFERENT RESORTS.

Saranac Lake, N. Y., August 26 (Special).—Newport, Saratoga and other resorts may be dull, but the mountain homes of pleasure, enjoyment and good health are all alive with joyous humanity. Hundreds of the weary are enjoying life hugely in all manner of ways, and at the same time breathing the healthy ozone of the Adirondacks. From nearly every resort in the mountains come reports of prosperity and festivity.

Paul Smith's at present a busy centre of fun and frolic. Although the Paul Smith nine has not been favored by fate and weather, yet it is now in shape to "do" anything in the region, and its many challenges remain unanswered. Among the New-York people at the hotel and in the cottages are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kingsland, M. C. Meyers, D. F. Ford, A. K. Ford, Nathan P. Elendort, A. L. White, Robert E. Little, E. H. Lake Placid has not been behind this week. The great races came off despite the unfavorable weather and poor track, and thousands were attracted thither. Horses were entered from many of the mountain resorts, but Saranac Lake trotters carried away most of the prizes.

At the Ruisseaumont on Tuesday was given by Miss E. M. Platt, of New-York, a party for the benefit of the Tribune Fresh-Air Fund. The sum of $200 was received. On Wednesday evening the Misses Packard, of Brooklyn, gave a "dove germ," which was largely attended and exceedingly enjoyed. Among the recent comers from New-York are Oliver Palmer, A. S. Duncan, Mrs. A. G. Mills, Edwin Packard, W. J. Curtis, Charles Desher, W. J. Larned, George Thacher, Walter Peiham, Judge Henry A. Moore, Charles B. Platt, Archibald C. Knowles, S. B. Beard, John M. Chapman, Robert W. Todd, Edward R. Andrews, Mrs. Pickhardt, William C. Switz, F. Krutina, and Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Pratt.

At the Mirror Lake House, always popular and always well filled, are John E. Pratt, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Bigelow, Mrs. D. C. Lyall, C. W. Low, C. M. Dougall, F. C. Mass, S. D. W. Shaughnessy, A. W. Spear, Jr., Miss F. Spear, A. W. Hazen, Mrs. A. Miller, Miss E. Stoothoff, Misses Weeden.

The Grand View House is now one of the best hotels in the mountains, and Mr. Allen may well be proud of its immense capacity and its excellent table. On account of the work on the new addition of 100 rooms, the house was not opened until late, but despite that fact its accommodations are now axed to their utmost, and 300 merry-makers and health-seekers are its guests. Among those from the metropolis are Captain and Mrs. William Wilson Edward R. James, T. E. Neill, Edmund Mass, Henry P. Miller, Amos Parker Miller, Miss May Miller, Miss May Gaugler, J. H. Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. T. Hogan, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Franklin, Dr. M. B. Wilson, N. C. Robbins, Miss Robbins, Miss Teal, Charles Dabenebaum, Miss Wick, Miss Taylor, Mrs. O. K. Keefe, P. F.
